London Workshop: Interpreting Police Interviews Effectively

September 29th 2017 – Wembley, London

Zakon Training are running a workshop designed for interpreters covering police investigative interviewing techniques. The day, which will include inputs on both witness and suspect interviews, will finish with an interactive practical exercise covering topical issues drawn from live cases. This fully packed day will include time to network and will be facilitated by experienced police trained advanced interviewers with particular experience of working with interpreters.

The day is also relevant to other professionals who may be involved in investigations (e.g. appropriate adults, social workers, sign language experts, court interpreters)

The venue is well located in bespoke conferencing facilities and the day includes a full and comprehensive catering package with accommodation available on site (extra charge) and car parking for just £5 for the day. The venue is also easily reachable by public transport. Certificates for CPD will be provided following the event.

The workshop is priced at just £120 fully inclusive of VAT, drinks, snacks and meals.

EARLY BIRD SAVING – BOOK BY 1st Sept for JUST £96
