How to use an interpreter

Delivered by: Phil MURIEL (MCIL CL)

In recent years, the Tees Valley has become a multi-cultural, multi-lingual area. Are you a professional working in health or social care or in the legal system (family law, for instance)? Then it is likely that you will come across non-English proficient clients/patients and need the services of a professional interpreter. How can you make the most of such a situation? Are there any 'dos and don'ts'? How can you make sure that none of your information is 'lost in translation'? This 2-hour [socially distanced] session (including questions & answers) will help you to work efficiently through an interpreter to ensure that your clients/patients do not miss out on any valuable information.

Introductory price: £20.00 (pay at the door)

Phil Muriel is an experienced and highly qualified interpreter and translator, holder of the Diploma in Translation (Law/Business), the DPSI in Law and the DPSI in Health. Phil is also an experienced lecturer and qualified tutor. With 20 years' experience as an interpreter, Phil has trained over 600 candidates to qualify as Community and DPSI interpreters, having been awarded the Nuffield trophy for the best DPSI class result in the UK in 2011.
