

CALL FOR THOSE WITH A RARE LANGUAGE, OR LESS COMMONLY SPOKEN LANGUAGE, TO PARTICIPATE IN A FEATURE FOR ITI BULLETIN MAGAZINE

ABOUT THE FEATURE AND WHAT'S REQUIRED

ITI Bulletin, the magazine of the Institute of Translation and Interpreting, is keen to talk to public service interpreters of less commonly spoken languages in the UK for a feature exploring the challenges they face, how they are broadly perceived, if and how their work differs in practice from working with more widely spoken languages and so on. The feature won't focus on specific cases (the editor is more than happy to anonymise and/or conceal any revealing details) but on the overall issues outlined.

ABOUT THE EDITOR/INTERVIEWER

The editor, who is half-Tamil, is a very experienced journalist. She has worked on this journal for four years and has been working in the social care sector for a couple of decades.

CONTACT DETAILS

If you interested in being interviewed for this feature, please email editor@iti.org.uk.

DEADLINE FOR INTERVIEWS

The deadline for interviews is Thursday 10 March.

ENDS