

Psychologists and Interpreters

A highly successful joint training session on psychologists working with interpreters in mental health was held in London on 31st May.

The event was led by Careif trustee Professor Rachel Tribe and Phil Muriel a board member of the National Register of Public Service interpreters (NRPSI) and was supported by Careif associate Emily O'Shea (see www.careif.org/ ) and ( www.nrpsi.org.uk ).

Helena El Masri from DPSI Online also participated and led a workshop; she was representing the Association of Community Interpreters (ACIS).

It was sold out within 36 hours of being advertised and a future event is planned for July 14th 2023.

Careif was the main supporting organization in partnership with the British Psychological Society (BPS), the National Register of Public Service Interpreters (NRPSI) and the Association of Community Interpreters (ACIS).

The event was attended by both psychologists and interpreters.

Feedback included:

- "An extremely useful and informative workshop"
- "I have benefitted greatly from this course"
- "Can we make this a regular event?"
