

Police Approved Interpreters and Translators (PAIT) Regions

Dynamic Purching System (DPS) update

The Yorkshire & Humber have now gone live with their language services contract under the DPS, which means every police force in England and North Wales now has a contract under the DPS. Every police force in England and Wales has signed up to the PAIT Scheme and is using interpreters from the PAIT List. This includes the Metropolitan Police for telephone interviewing (Metropolitan Police In-House Services for Face-to-Face and Translation) and those Welsh forces using WITS as their supplier.

Attached is a map showing all police regions and the suppliers contracted to them.
