Dear Mike Orlov,

I am writing to express my sincere gratitude for your contribution to the success of the Linguists Collective (LC) Conference and Celebration of International Mother Language Day (IMLD) 2024. Your expertise, insights, and passion significantly enriched the event, leaving a profound impact on all attendees.

Your willingness to share your knowledge, experiences, and perspectives played a pivotal role in fostering a dynamic atmosphere conducive to learning, collaboration, and celebration. Your presentation was particularly captivating, sparking engaging discussions and reflections among the audience.

We deeply appreciate the time, effort, and dedication you invested in preparing and delivering your speech. Your professionalism, eloquence, and interaction with the audience exemplified your unwavering commitment to excellence and greatly enhanced the overall experience of the conference.

Having you as part of our distinguished lineup of speakers was an honour and privilege. Your participation elevated the calibre of the event and contributed significantly to its success. We are grateful for your involvement and the positive impact you have had on our language lovers.

We are thrilled to inform you that preparations are already underway for the LC Conference and IMLD Celebration 2025. Given the exceptional quality of your contribution this year, we would be delighted to have you join us again next year. Your continued participation would undoubtedly elevate the programme and inspire our participants once more. Further details will be published closer to the conference in 2025 and it will be shared with you accordingly. The speaker's profile form for 2025 is available here for your convenience. Please feel free to complete and submit it at your convenience.

Thank you once again for your outstanding contribution to the LC Conference and IMLD Celebration 2024. We sincerely hope to have the pleasure of welcoming you back in 2025 for another enriching and memorable experience.

Best regards,
