

House of Lords Public Services Committee calling for submissions of evidence focusing on interpreting and translation services in the courts

As you know the House of Lords Public Services Committee has launched a short inquiry into Interpreting and Translation Services in the Courts. See news story on 12th August 2024 from NRPSI website's news pages.

As part of this inquiry, the Committee is inviting relevant stakeholders to submit written evidence on the subject.

Thanks to all who have already forwarded their thoughts to NRPSI and thanks to all who have authored and sent their own submissions to the House of Lords Inquiry.

NRPSI's preparation of a submission is well under way and we would very much like to hear from you no later than Thursday 19th September 2024 if you have something more you wish to add.

Your insights and feedback are always invaluable, and your input will be instrumental in shaping our submission. Please find the link to the questionnaire below:
