

Supporting Those at the House of Lords Round Table

A number of interpreters have been invited to attend a House of Lords Public Services Committee round table as part of the Inquiry in to Interpreting and Translation Services in the Courts.

As a sign of support, some other interpreters have registered a gathering with the London Metropolitan Police Service, and this will be a legal and peaceful demonstration which is not expected to have many people.

However if you are free, please join those who are at the demonstration from 10am on 17th December 2024, gathering at Parliament Square, as a sign of support.
