

Leicestershire Police Survey for Interpreters Undertaking Police Assignments

Introduction

Leicestershire Police holds the National Lead for Police language Services on behalf of all police forces in England and Wales. The Head of Procurement (Ian Fraser) and National Police Contract Manager (Mark Lewis) have spent a great deal of time engaging with interpreter representative bodies and organisations as well as individual interpreters in an effort to ensure the new National Police Dynamic Purchasing System (DPS) is as suitable and attractive for interpreters as possible. This survey continues that work and asks your honest opinion of what minimum hourly rate of pay you believe you should be paid by the Language Service Provider (LSP).

Only complete this survey if you are a face to face interpreter (spoken) who currently accepts police assignments

You should only complete the survey once, multiple survey responses will not assist us in determining your accurate views.

Kind regards

Mark Lewis
