

New Ownership at tbw 210805

Today we have exciting news to announce: Susquehanna Private Capital (SPC) has acquired a majority equity stake in thebigword Group, and we are incredibly pleased to be able to finally share this news with our linguist community.

With funding from SPC, thebigword will continue to strengthen its presence in its core lines of business and fulfil our mission to become the de facto multilingual communication tool.

We are excited about what thebigword will be able to offer linguists going forward, such as investments in product innovation and new business. This will allow us to grow and provide more opportunities for our linguist community.

Rest assured that with this change, there will be no disruption to service and you will only see benefits from this investment.

I want to thank you for your continued support, and I look forward to communicating with you in the near future.
