Personal suitability

Minimum age of 18 years: no maximum age limit but interpreters must produce medical confirmation of their ability to undertake interpreting work if requested to do so by the Selection Panel. Eligible to work in the UK as a self employed person (please check your immigration status). Must have a valid and up-to-date security clearance (Please see security clearance information sheet)

Upgrades

All Interpreters are required to upgrade to Full status within a certain timescale:

Interim status:

Interim Option A - Five years (by obtaining more than 400 hours of public service interpreting)

Interim Option B - Three years (by obtaining a full PSI qualification: either the DPSI, Metropolitan Police Test or Equivalent Level Interpreting Qualification at Honours Degree level.)

Rare Language:

By obtaining a full PSI qualification: either the DPSI, Metropolitan Police Test or Equivalent Level Interpreting Qualification at Honours Degree level and proof of 400 hours PSI experience. The Rare Language Category is reviewed by the Selection Panel at Annual Renewal. If a PSI qualification has become available the interpreter must take this qualification. Continuing Professional Development (CPD) such as training courses attended will also be reviewed at Annual Renewal).
